About Cambridge English exams

Cambridge English exams are the most valuable range of qualifications for learners of English. Designed for school-aged students, the qualifications range from A1 to C2 levels on the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). Globally, Cambridge English exams are accepted and trusted by over 20,000 organisations. Taking a Cambridge English exam is therefore guaranteed to help your students in their personal and professional endeavours.

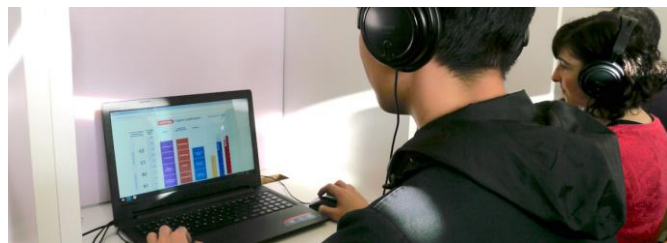

Cambridge exams with BLTC

The British Language Training Centre is an authorised Cambridge English exam centre, as well as an educational institute, located in the centre of Amsterdam. Not only do we offer all available Cambridge exams in either paper-based or computer-based format, we also offer guidance and support to your teachers throughout the school year. We pride ourselves in the flexible and personal approach we offer and we are happy to discuss how we can best accommodate your students' needs!
